Today the theme at the Illinois State Fair is Futures for Kids Day.

TEAM ROCK EXTREME BREAKING SHOW

The martial arts show includes performances on precision jumps, shattered boards, and much more. The show is a triple-combination of extreme air, extreme power breaking, and extreme self-defense.

The martial artists go airborne, executing high flying aerobatic stunts while breaking boards with every spin. Multiple boards, multiple locations...all from just one jump. Performers blast through huge stacks of bricks, boards, and whatever else they can think of with all different parts of the body. They compete nationally in taekwondo.

Show hours for the remaining of the fair are Saturday – Sunday, August 18 – 19, 1:15, 3:35, and 5:55 p.m. Our feed provides plenty of performance b-roll and an interview with show announcer Kyle Palmer from Manchester, Iowa.
